LOCAL BREVITIES.

Last night was bright, mild and beautiful and, after so much cloudy weather, the moonlight was truly enjoyable.

The shed at the spoke factory caught fire this morning from sparks from the stack, but the flames were extinguished before much damage had been done, and without an alarm having been sounded.

Oliver Way, colored, is under arrest in Washington for stealing a horse and wagon belonging to John J. Hall and Wm. Gault, of Calvert county, Md. Way is wanted here also for horse stealing.

Judge Keith granted on Wednesday a charter incorporating "The Price Patent Car Cover Company," with a capital of $800,000, J. W. Foster, of Leesburg, President; Samuel Ross, Vice President; James H. Marr, Treasurer.

Major John M. Burke, general manager of Buffalo Bill's Wild West show, was in Washington yesterday. He says that the horses and buffaloes of the show will be wintered at Gen. Baile's stock farm, in the suburbs of Washington, arriving there next Monday.

An oyster supper was given at the residence of Mrs. Oberm, at Falls Church, on Tuesday night last for the benefit of the Catholic Church at West Falls Church, which was a success in every particular. After the supper the young folks enjoyed a dance which they kept up till morning.

About forty young ladies and gentlemen of Trinity M. E. Church assembled at the parsonage last night and organized a "Young People's Prayer Meeting" to be held in their church at 6:45 o'clock every Sunday evening. After the organization of the meeting a bountiful repast was served by the pastor's wife, Mrs. R. F. Bishop, which was highly enjoyed by all.

A distressing accident occurred a few days since on board the schooner Margaret Plater, bound from Baltimore to Fredericksburg with coal. Wm. Reeves, Jr., son of Capt. Wm. Reeves, shot and killed George Monro, a colored boy, who lived in Virginia. The killing appears to have been entirely accidental, caused by the careless handling of a gun, as both boys were playing at the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Bortz went to Washington this morning and with Detective Wheeler, of that city, recovered the horse which was stolen from Mr. Buckner, of Leesburg, a few nights since by a colored preacher named Gillerson. The horse was found at work on the new aqueduct work, in possession of Matthew King, who purchased it from Gillerson for $40. Mr. Buckner took possession of his horse and rode him home. Gillerson, who is under arrest, told the officers that he had stolen and sold the horse.

A FEW THINGS OF INTEREST.

The trade of September, 1887, was so satisfactory and the increase over the same month of any former year of our business was so great that we made mention of it at the time. The September last past shows an equally gratifying condition of affairs, and so far as lies in our power nothing has been left undone to produce a like result in October.

OUR CARPET DEPARTMENT

Has materially contributed to this success. In it we have put a most desirable assortment of Carpets.

HEMP, BEST EXTRA SUPER INGRAIN, COTTON CHAIN, THREE-PLY, RAC, TAPESTRY BRUSSELS,

Pine Wool Body Brussels, Cotton Warp In-grain, Velvet, all-wool Ingrain, Wilton Velvet, &c., &c.

OIL CLOTHS. 4-4, 6-4 AND 8-4.

8-4 English Corticene, superior to Linoleum.

Mats, Rags, Art Squares, Stair Pads, Stair Buttons and, in short, all lines of goods that go to make up the complete stock of a well-ordered establishment. We have extra good values in 11-4 AND 12-4 BLANKETS.

They are even better bargains than any we had during our great Blanket sale of a few years past. The recent arrival of an

ENTIRELY NEW LINE OF TRUNKS,

Places us in a position to offer superior goods at reasonable prices.

We have lately closed out all of the old stock of UMBRELLAS, and now have only new and fresh goods at popular prices.

Special attention is called to the good bargain in Gentlemen's White Shirts at 50 and 75c.

Our Dress Goods Department

Is fully equipped with many desirable fabrics.

ISAAC EICHBERG & CO.

RAILROAD NOTES.—The Richmond and Danville R. R. Company having leased the property of the East Tennessee, Virginia, and Georgia Railway Company and operated lines, and the transfer having been made, the latter lines will hereafter be operated by the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company as lessee thereof. The following general officers in their respective departments will assume charge of the business of the lines so leased for account of the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company, with offices at Knoxville, Tennessee: C. H. Hudson, general superintendent—transportation and maintenance department; Wm. Hawn, auditor—accounting department; James N. Mitchell, acting treasurer—treasury department.

Officers and employees of the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railway Company will retain their respective positions, subject to the control of the Richmond and Danville Railroad Company. The authority of Col. T. M. R. Talcott, first vice president, in charge of traffic, and Maj. Peyton Randolph, general manager, in charge of operation and maintenance of the R. & D. road, is extended over the East Tennessee, Virginia and Georgia Railway.

The pay day on the Midland road has been changed from the 20th to the 18th of each month.

PERSONAL.—City Auditor Price is confined to his home with a severe cold.

Mr. Wm. B. Lloyd, of Orange, N. J., and Miss Mary P. Leadbeater were married last night by Rev. Dr. Suter at the residence of the bride's father, E. S. Leadbeater, eq., on south Pitt street. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd left on the 9:30 train for their home in New York.

Miss Indie Landrum, of Gordonsville, is visiting Miss Edith Lynch, of Wolfe street. Capt. G. A. Mushbach has gone to Staunton on legal business.

The Rev. S. S. Ware, of Hamilton, Loudoun county, has accepted the call to the Episcopal Church at Port Royal, Caroline county.

Mr. Chas. A. Herring and Miss Maggie M. Hill were married last night.

Miss Lula H. Wertenbaker, daughter of Colonel C. C. Wertenbaker, and Mr. George M. Saunders, of Claremont, S. C., were married in Charlottesville on Tuesday.

Mrs. C. C. Snoot and the Misses Lula and Sue Snoot are at Ford's Hotel, Richmond. Mrs. Fulton, of Howard county, Md., is visiting her mother, Mrs. Jas. F. Carrin, at "Mount Pleasant," in Fairfax.

Miss Lillie Hill is visiting in Richmond.

BRAKEMAN KILLED.—Brakeman John Norris, of the Midland road, was knocked off a train by being struck on the head while passing over the covered bridge, near Clifton, this morning, and killed. Norris fell on the track, between the cars, was run over and his body badly mutilated. His remains were brought to this city and taken to the undertakers' establishment of Mr. Domaine, where they were prepared for burial and were this evening sent to the home of his family at Profit, near Charlottesville. Norris was about 28 years old and had been an employee of the road less than a year.

OPERA HOUSE.—The favorite musical comedy of "Fashionable, or a Satire on Society" will be presented to night and it is thought that the excellent company interpreting it will be greeted with a large audience, which their merits entitle them to. The comedy abounds in humorous passages and is rich with startling situations and intense dramatic climaxes. The company is a select one and the entertainment is no doubt one of the best that will be witnessed here this season.

Mr. Frank C. Bangs will appear here Tuesday night in "Jim the Penman."

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge Charles E. Stuart presiding. Permission was granted to Mr. Oliver Baptist Church, colored, to borrow money to improve the church building, and Stradick Herod was substituted a trustee in place of Albert King.

Com. vs. Thomas Downey; indicted for unlawful gaming; two special pleas to statement filed and argued, and Court took time to consider.

Court adjourned till to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

A WOMAN PAYS A WHEELBARROW BET. Mrs. V. Pease, of Appleton, made a bet with Mrs. Sprawl that the Hon. S. J. Gushee would be elected Senator. The condition of the bet was that if Mr. Gushee was elected Mrs. Sprawl was to wheel Mrs. Pease on a wheelbarrow from the Grange hall to the Postoffice, some fifteen rods. On the other hand, if Mr. Gushee was defeated, Mrs. Pease was to wheel Mrs. Sprawl over the same ground, with the same carriage. Tuesday night, Sept. 11, Mrs. Pease owned she was beaten, and appeared at the Grange hall with a wheelbarrow, assisted Mrs. Sprawl to a seat in her carriage as per agreement, and wheeled her to the Postoffice. —Levinston Journal.
